

CP photo

Dashing through the snow

Charles Curtis of Aspy Bay, N.S. catches his breath after finishing the men's 10-kilometre cross-country ski race at the Canada Games Monday in Corner Brook.

Gliding to the finish.

Le fil d'arrivée est en vue.

THE DAILY NEWS

Nova Scotia

SERVING CENTRAL NOVA SCOTIA SINCE 1891

Saturday, February 27, 1999

96¢ plus

Fun and Games

Bryan Scallion of Wentworth pumps up the fog horn for 20-month-old Matthew Diamond of Flower's Cove, Nfld. this week at the 1999 Canada Winter Games in Corner Brook, Nfld. Scallion has three youngsters competing at the Games, and along with other Nova Scotian athletes, he's been cheering them with the help of the horn. See story page 48. (Smith photo)

FAMILY OF SKIERS - Margret, Keight and Conor Scallion of Wentworth were honoured to be on Nova Scotia ski teams for the 1999 Canada Games in Cornerbrook, Nfld. last month.

Here, from the left are Margret Keight and Conor.

(Weeks)

Scallion Siblings Place Well At Canada Games

Feb 99